

CALL FOR PAPERS

EUROPEAN FOOD AND FEED LAW (EFFL)

EFFL offers an intellectual forum for legal scholarship on key developments in food and feed law, led by experts in the field. The journal covers wide ranging topics including, but not limited to:

- compliance with European and international food and feed law
- food safety and inspection
- food labelling and advertising
- food technology
- functional and novel foods
- ingredients, additives, and supplements
- health claims
- sustainability

EFFL is published on a bi-monthly basis and is available in print and online.

Lexxion Publisher and the EFFL Editorial Board are pleased to invite you to contribute to upcoming issues of the journal. Articles and country reports are required to comply with our author guidelines, available at www.lexxion.eu/effl-authors
