EUROPEAN DEFENCE &
SECURITY LAW & POLICY
QUARTERLY

EDSeq is the first pan-European journal dedicated to the legal, policy, and regulatory dimensions of European defence. It provides an impartial platform for analysing the role of law and regulation in building an effective European defence framework and shaping the evolving European defence market.

EDSeq welcomes submissions on all major areas of European defence, security, and procurement law, economics, and policy. Priority topics include:

- EU strategic autonomy and “buying European” initiatives
- Defence innovation and emerging technologies
- Amendments and reforms to EU procurement directives
- Collaborative procurement and joint capability development
- Defence financing structures and investment mechanisms
- Supply chain governance, resilience, and contract management
- Digitalisation and AI applications for defence and security
- Intellectual property rights in defence R&D and procurement
- Military mobility, infrastructure, and logistics frameworks
- Third-country market access, participation conditions, and restrictions
- Dual-use and defence-related export control regimes

All articles are subject to double-blind peer review before acceptance and must follow our Author Guidelines.

Submission Deadline:

Issue 2: 26 February, 2026

Please send your submission to the Executive Editor.
